

EGM Integrated Services maintains a philosophy of High Quality products and service delivered to our customers concerning the printing, scanning and copying of documents and drawings in general. EGM parallel Engineering provides services in project development and implementation of health facilities.

We are also equipped with the most modern equipment capable of providing an optimum service in photocopying, printing, scanning, copying documents at both white and black as color, EGM Comprehensive Services provides better care to system files sent e-mail and making shorter time delivery of products to customers.